

BLACK HISTORY MONTH · Weltmuseum Wien · February 2026

Black History Month at Weltmuseum Wien highlights Black histories, African perspectives, and decolonial questions through talks, tours, and workshops for all ages.

Selecting Memory – Who Decides What Is Remembered?

Discussion & exchange | Tue, 10 February 2026, 6.30 p.m.

How do African and Black histories become visible in museums – and who decides? Selecting Memory is an open, participatory discussion centred on dialogue and the voices of the audience, particularly Black communities and the African diaspora in Vienna.

With educational scientist and queer theorist Dshamilja Adeifio Gosteli, artist and curator Marina Gržinić, journalist and media expert Simon Inou, and Henrie Dennis, the new curator of the African collections at the Weltmuseum Wien.
