I want you
to visit me!
Vienna's new museum
waits for you

It's all about people.

After many years of extensive reconstruction, the Weltmuseum Wien, one of the most important ethnographic museums in the world, finally opened its doors in late 2017. As the very heart of the new Museum, the permanent exhibition has been redesigned from the ground up. Strung together like a chain of pearls, the series of stories told in the 14 galleries feature the core of the permanent exhibition with 3,127 objects combined with contemporary interpretations.

World-famous cultural treasures

Among the highlights of the new Weltmuseum Wien are the ancient Mexican feather headdress "Penacho", the feather bust of the Hawaiian war god Ku from the famous James Cook Collection, the rare feather cloak of the Mundurucu in Brazil, the two court dwarfs from the Benin Kingdom, or the almost 700 years old mosque lamps from Cairo.

The fascinating Hall of Columns

The historically protected Hall of Columns may be accessed even without a ticket: enjoy the magnificent ambiance and discover the new cook café & bistro. Treat yourself to our exquisite delicacies prepared with love and passion in comfortable atmosphere before, during, or after your visit to the Museum. For more information and our menu go to www.cook-bistro.at.

Exciting special exhibitions

Aside from the new permanent collection, there are also other ways for you to find out more about different cultures and Austria's relationship to the world: the Museum's current and upcoming special exhibitions offer contemporary perspectives on ethnographic topics.
